CITY SCENE

(The inner City Experience)

HIGHLIGHTS:

Experience Durban through the eyes of a local. Visit the oldest standing house in the city, embrace the hustle and bustle of the markets at Warwick Triangle and taste a local lunchtime delicacy, the "bunny chow".

OVERVIEW:

Set off from the Berea, learning about Durban's origins and take in the skyline from our favourite lookout point. We then make our way to the commuter's daily crossroad, Warwick Triangle, indulging our senses in the vibrant diversity of the Victoria, Muti and Early Morning Markets.

Engage with citizens as you explore the arcades that further criss-cross the city, and educate your palate with a true testament of Durban's Indian culinary heritage- the "bunny chow". Stretch your legs with a walk around the historic city centre, from City Hall to the inner city gardens and end off the trip with a scenic drive along Durban's harbour, Africa's busiest port.
