TOWNSHIP SCENE

(Drop all your assumptions and insecurities and prepare for an adventure to remember!)

HIGHLIGHTS:

Townships are the cultural soul of South Africa and few can rival the townships of Inanda and KwaMashu in their cultural richness. Weave to the rhythmic heartbeat of these "locations", and walk the path of some of the world's greatest leaders before sharing a traditional shisanyama lunch at a local tavern.

OVERVIEW:

Drive out of the city and into the townships to walk on the original wooden floors of Mahatma Gandhi's house and pay respects to Dr. John Dube at Ohlange High School, where Nelson Mandela cast his vote in South Africa's long awaited first democratic elections.

Cross into the rural Mzinyathi area, and learn about the spiritual significance of its namesake waterfall. Hit back a few quarts of beer with the locals, before sharing a traditional shisanyama lunch* at our favourite tavern. Engage with vendors outside the KwaMashu station with the Zulu we've taught you, and see the variety of wares. End of the trip with a visit to a family home in K Section, to get a more personal insight into township life before heading back.
